Unite Us brings sectors together through technology to ensure people's needs are met. We drive the collaboration to identify, deliver, and pay for services that impact whole-person health.

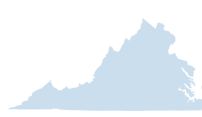

Over 21 Million Connections to Care

Why Work with Us?

- > A Clear Mission
To unlock the potential of every community.
- > It Starts with Service
Dan Brillman and Taylor Justice founded Unite Us in 2013 to serve veterans, and Unite Us has since grown into a national movement to connect everyone in every community to the care they need.
- > A Proven Track Record
In the past 10 years, communities in 44 states have launched local networks with workflows configured for each organization and optimized to meet the needs of the people seeking services.
- > Collaborative
Our collaborative infrastructure bridges gaps between sectors and empowers organizations to coordinate and deliver a wide range of services.

- > Accountable
Our secure, data-driven, outcomes-focused ecosystem ensures accountability between community partners and individuals served.
- > Local
As the trusted choice of health, government, and community-based organizations, our solution addresses the unique needs of every community—from rural to urban and everything in between.
