

Unite Summit County helps service providers connect residents with social care through the Unite Us platform. This work was inspired by Summit County Executive Ilene Shapiro and funded by the Opiate Abatement Advisory Council.

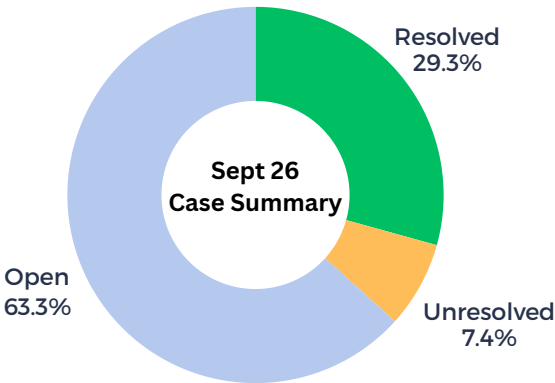

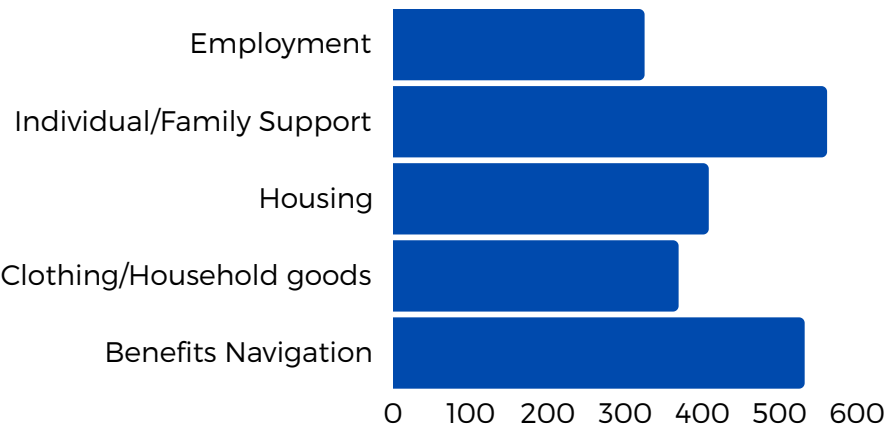

ACTIVITY SUMMARY

The Unite Summit County network now includes 362 active organizations and has sent 8,147 referrals since Summit County's partnership began in August 2023. Since 2022, the network has served 6,693 residents, demonstrating the continued reach of the platform across Summit County.

Over the past six months, accepted referrals have remained steady, with individual/family support and benefits navigation among the most requested service types. September's case data shows that nearly two-thirds of cases remain open, reflecting ongoing connections between residents and local health and social service providers.
